Supporting the Mission of the Academic Library
LexisNexis® Academic & Library Solutions is dedicated to meeting the research needs of academic librarians and promoting information access.

Fast and Easy Access
Campus-wide access using IP authentication, support for secure remote and mobile access methods, and unlimited simultaneous access make LexisNexis Academic available to all your users.

Portable Search Widgets
Portable Search Widgets allow you to put a live LexisNexis Academic search box on your own website. Simply copy and paste a small box of HTML, and turn your site into a direct portal to LexisNexis Academic. As long as your customers are already authenticated remotely through your library portal, or are on campus, the search widget will retrieve the same LexisNexis Academic results you would find on the full product.

Interoperability
LexisNexis Academic works with your existing systems to manage your electronic holdings and put the right content in front of your patrons.
- E-journals systems
- Article linking
- Federated search/metasearch

Content Review
LexisNexis aggressively pursues appropriate new content. Our advisory committee, made up of librarians from diverse academic institutions, reviews content additions and adheres to our collection development policy.

Training and On-Demand Support for Librarians
Our academic training team conducts on-site and Web-based training sessions throughout the year. Customer support representatives are on call to provide technical assistance and to answer questions about content, product features and search strategies at any time. Additional training and product support is also available through:
- LexisNexis® Academic Product Knowledge Center
- LexisNexis® Academic Training Videos on YouTube™

Powerful Source Selection
Search for a source by name OR identify sources by type, language, topic, geography or other facets. Use the Source Information feature to display coverage details, publication frequency, online availability, publisher information, and to view sample content and search features.

LexisNexis SmartIndexing Technology™
LexisNexis SmartIndexing Technology™ ensures relevant results by applying controlled vocabulary terms for several different taxonomies to all LexisNexis news and business content. The Source Selection tool includes such attributes as publication type, language, geographic region and topic coverage. LexisNexis SmartIndexing Technology taxonomies are built and maintained by the LexisNexis Taxonomies and Indexing team, which consists of information professionals, lawyers, subject matter experts and analysts. The team also develops rules for index terms, which are assigned automatically to documents and sources, using a unique approach that combines the best features of human and automated indexing practices. All news and business content is reindexed every quarter to ensure that indexing is consistent, comprehensive and up to date.
Results Clustering
Results clustering technology provides an instant, multi-faceted analysis of the distribution of hits in each results set, allowing users to filter results and go directly to relevant information. After running a search in LexisNexis Academic, and obtaining results that contain more than one hit, results are displayed similar to the screen shown below.

Permalinking Capability
Permalinking enables users to easily capture and share links to documents for a variety of purposes, including:
- Bookmarking documents in a Web browser for easy access at a later time
- Adding document-level permanent links to user guides or course syllabi
- Sharing links with others on social media sites
- Emailing links instead of full documents

Bibliographic Export
Bibliographic export gives users the ability to download bibliographic information in .RIS format, which can be imported into any other citation service, such as Zotero® or EndNote®. In addition, citations can be displayed in MLA, APA and Chicago formats, then copied and pasted to bibliographic pages.

News
Access the full-text of international newspapers, wire services, broadcast transcripts, news, English and non-English language sources. LexisNexis Academic includes more than 2,500 newspapers from around the world, many of which are available online the same day as publication. More than 1,000 magazines and journals and over 600 newsletters also are available on LexisNexis Academic. Sources like: The New York Times, The Associated Press, Agence France Presse, The Washington Post, Library Journal, etc. Hard-to-find broadcast transcripts from the major television & radio networks: ABC, CBS, CNN, FOX, NBC, NPR. Newspapers in English, Portuguese, Spanish, French, German, Italian, Dutch, etc.

WebNews
New to LexisNexis Academic, Web News expands access to more than 3,000 local and regional newspapers, blogs and other Web sources. Web News aggregates relevant information from the websites of newspapers that are not formally included in a LexisNexis Academic subscription.

Legal Research
LexisNexis Academic has everything you need for robust legal research, from primary sources like case law, statutes and regulations to secondary sources, such as legal news and law reviews. Retrieve a case by citation or name, search within legal headnotes, or search for names of counsel and judges. LexisNexis Academic includes the Shepard’s Citations Service, a cornerstone of the legal research process. Other legal research sources include:
